

Lil' Birdie

I'm just a lil' birdie
Who hasn't learned to fly
But one day I'll be bigger
And I'll take to the sky
I'll grow a bunch of feathers
And live through any weather
I'll fly higher when it's warm
And find rest in my nest in the storm
I sure have a lot to learn
But one day soon I'll soar
High above the clouds
And even then a little more
I'll finally reach the heavens
Which is where I'll find my perch
And when I finally see the sunrise
Then I'll call off my search
But until that day I'll be singin'
My lil' birdie song
With the hopes that one or two other
Lil' birdies might sing along
